

ASSISTANT BUILDING SURVEYOR

LONDON CITY

Our flagship office, opened in 1998 and is Trident's largest office stretching from keen graduates to directors with four decades in the business. With London's constant growth and development, you would be hard pushed to find a busier office in the industry than our London City branch.

Major Job Function:

We are searching for someone who will assist on directors and chartered surveyors with projects and other works, to help Trident Building Consultancy achieve its objectives and fulfil the mission statement. The role requires you to undertake and successfully complete the Assessment of Professional Competence, as administered by the RICS.

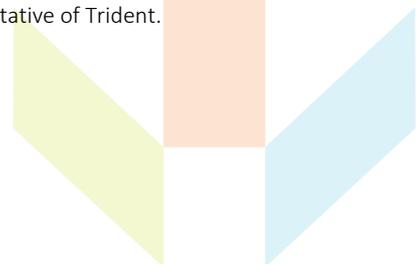

In addition to the contractual duties, the successful candidate should be responsible for:

Professional Duties

- Assisting directors and chartered surveyors to fulfil the role of contract administrator/project manager/project monitor/employers agent and overall lead client contact in connection with the procurement of new build, repair, alteration or refurbishment projects.
- Assisting professional work including building inspections and producing reports and schedules following initial survey.
- Demonstrating knowledge and appreciation of all legislation affecting the procurement of works and the maintenance and use of property.
- Making comprehensive usage of all available resources within Trident to fulfil clients' requirements with maximum efficiency and to the highest quality.
- Recognising the aims of the company and assisting in the accomplishment of the mission statement.

Business Development

- To be fully aware of all services offered by Trident and be able to describe these to existing and prospective clients.
- Managing client expectations at all times and ensuring that they are regularly and fully informed as to the status of their instructions.
- Assisting in developing new client contacts and generating leads into new business.
- Being aware of industry news, changes to legislation and standards and other developments.
- Exceeding client expectations and building and maintaining a good reputation and relationship with existing clients both personally and as a representative of Trident.
